Lodz, 7 May 2020

Dear Sir or Madam,

The events of recent weeks, related to the pandemic caused by Coronavirus forced us, the Authorities of the University of Lodz, to reorganize the summer exam session. With a view to providing you with maximum comfort, we decided to postpone the summer session to the end of summer, namely between 24 August and 24 September this year.

In order to meet your expectations and requests, we have also prepared the option of taking exams now, in an online form. However, I would like to point out that an exam in this mode is not an obligation - neither for lecturers nor students. I encourage you to use this opportunity wherever possible. I would like to mention that in the case of foreign students, who have left for their countries, the form of online exams and credit assignments may be the only possible option. Below I allow myself to send you instruction on how to conduct and take exams in an online form:

To date, despite many objective difficulties, the University of Lodz stands the test of crisis management in all areas of its activity, also in didactics in an exemplary way. Preserving the continuity of the teaching process would not be possible without your great responsibility, resourcefulness and extraordinary commitment. Therefore, I have no doubt that you will approach the exam session in the same mature way.

All information about the current functioning of the University can be found on the website: www.covid19.uni.lodz.pl. Any questions or concerns can be sent to the address cp@uni.lodz.pl.

With best wishes of health and good luck,

Prof. dr hab. Sławomir Cieślak

UL Vice-Rector for Education
